Delhi - Agra - Jaipur

About Destinations:

Delhi:

Delhi is the Capital of India and the largest city in terms of area. Delhi is also said to be the oldest existing city in the world, along with Jerusalem and Varanasi. Old Delhi was the capital of Mughal Empire from 1649 until 1857. Shah Jahan built a new walled city named Shahjahanabad in Delhi. New Delhi, created by British Rule, is well-planned and more spacious. This city has been made, destroyed and rebuilt 11 times. Delhi is a meeting ground of both tradition and modernity as it has the perfect blend of rich historical past and stylish present simultaneously. It is known for its mysterious eternity and rich historical background. The city has been the political capital of India since the mythological era.

Agra:

Welcome to Mughal city Agra. It was the former capital of India. Agra is situated on the banks of the river Yamuna and is the perfect destination for tourists & students of architecture. Agra is blessed with one of the Seven Wonders of the World, the "Taj Mahal". With its rich culture, history, and architectural work, the city stands at the top of India's tourist destinations. Agra was the capital city of Sikander Lodhi. Babar, in 1526 A.D., took over the rule after defeating Sikander Lodhi, and from here, the Mughal and Indian blend of architectural work came alive, resulting in some extraordinary monuments, taking the top places in the world heritage sites.

Jaipur:

Jaipur, aka Pink City, is the capital of Rajasthan. It is well acclaimed for its rich culture and tradition. It was founded in 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Singh II, the Amber Fort ruler. Jaipur is touted as the first planned city in India. The capital city has always been praised for its magnificent artefacts, exquisite jewellery and cordial hospitality. Jaipur has many important temples, long-standing Forts, Palaces and an incredible landscape to add to its glory. These structures, with their unique combinations of geometric forms, have captivated artists, historians and architects at large scale. The largest of the five Jantar Mantars is in Jaipur.

Detailed Itinerary:

DAY 1 [Oct 01, 2026]: Delhi

Arrive in Delhi by flight. Welcome to the capital and second-most populous city of India, Delhi. The city's importance lies in its past glory as the seat of the empire's magnificent monuments and rich and diverse cultures.

A private car with a driver will pick you up from Delhi Airport and transfer you to the hotel. Check-in at the hotel and relax.

After refreshing, head out for sightseeing in Delhi. Drive past Rashtrapati Bhavan (the residence of the President of India) and visit India Gate (a memorial to 82,000 soldiers of the Indian Army who died between 1914 and 21 in the First World War).

Then, visit Gurudwara Bangla Sahib, one of the most prominent Sikh temples or houses of worship in Delhi, India. It is known for its association with the eighth Sikh Guru, Guru Har Krishan, and the pool inside its complex, known as the "Sarovar."

Overnight stay will be at the hotel in Delhi.
